Biography

Cathy Wesson is a certified family nurse practitioner at Goshen Center for Cancer Care. She works with a team of medical oncologists and providers to care for patients during cancer treatment. Her specific focus is with patients who participate in clinical research studies.

Cathy has more than 25 years of experience as a registered nurse in surgical and outpatient care units. She received additional training in research trials and study protocols to earn her certification in Good Clinical Practice from the National Institute on Drug Abuse.

When Cathy is away from patient care, she dedicates time to her family and outdoor activities, including hiking and canoeing.

Philosophy of Care

Cathy knows every patient's journey is different. That's why she offers a listening ear and genuine, holistic care. She treats patients with respect and serves as their advocate throughout treatment and beyond.
