About Me

Tricia Foster is a board certified family medicine physician with Goshen Physicians Osteopathic Family Clinic in Nappanee. She provides medical care for adults and children of all ages in the Wakarusa and Nappanee communities. Her holistic approach centers on preventive care and treatment of chronic illnesses and injuries for the entire family.

Prior to joining Goshen Physicians, Dr. Foster served as the Medical Director and Physician for Occupational Health Center in Bremen. She treated work-related injuries, provided pre-employment physicals and reviewed lab results for workers and employers. Dr. Foster also practiced family medicine and occupational health in Wakarusa, Indiana, for 10 years as a physician at Waterford Street Family Medicine.

Philosophy of Care

Respect and compassion define Dr. Foster's approach to care. She treats patients the way she would want to be treated. Always ready to lend a listening ear, Dr. Foster builds strong patient/provider relationships that last a lifetime.
